Disbursement of these funds is subject to the guidelines established by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Eastern Pennsylvania Scholarship Foundation. Both EITC & OSTC eligibility requirements are based upon the number of dependents within a household and NOT household size.

EITC – Educational Improvement Tax Credit *

- Eligible students are school age residents of Pennsylvania, enrolled in a Catholic School located in the Diocese of Allentown from a household that has combined annual income no more than $90,000*. Additional income allowance of $15,842* for each dependent living in the household. School age students range from Prekindergarten (only 3 & 4 year olds) and Kindergarten through graduation from high school or 21 years of age, whichever occurs first. Awards will be based on funding and greatest need.

Priority will be given to families at 185% of Federal poverty level (approx. $42,000 for family of 4). This eligibility criterion was established by the State of Pennsylvania as an “income ceiling.” Awards will be based on funding and greatest need.

SCHOLARSHIPS, GRANTS & FINANCIAL AID

YEAW SCHOLARSHIP GRANT

The Yeaw Scholarship Fund has been established in honor of Barbara Amabile. Barbara Amabile was involved in Diocesan Education for 30 years, a Principal since 1979, and a past Principal of Holy Family School for 11 years. She considers her time at Holy Family School her “best years in education”. She wants to emphasize Holy Family’s “quality of education and the wonderful opportunity provided children to grow both spiritually and academically.” Sadly, Barbara passed away unexpectedly on November 27, 2018. This fund has been donated by Mr. and Mrs. Yeaw to support the Catholic School Tradition. The amount of this scholarship varies from year to year. To be eligible, a child must be in 6th, 7th, or 8th grade.

HOLY FAMILY SCHOOL – HOME & SCHOOL ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIP

The Home & School Association Scholarship Fund was established by the parents of the Holy Family School in 2003. This scholarship is in memory of Mrs. Lynn O’Callaghan. “Mrs. O” was a sixth, seventh and eighth grade teacher of Language Arts, Literature and Religion at Holy Family School for 15 years. An avid reader, she particularly enjoyed teaching literature. She loved Ireland, lived there for a year and married an Irish man; however, when she came to Nazareth, she said she “found a home.” In September 2004, Mrs. O. lost her battle to cancer. A portion of all fundraising efforts conducted by the Home & School Association are set aside to assist school families who need assistance meeting their tuition obligation. Disbursement of these funds and the size of each scholarship award is the sole discretion of the Holy Family School Scholarship Committee. The amount of award money available will vary from year to year depending upon the success of previous year’s fundraising efforts and donations received. To be eligible, a child may be in any grade.
